Women's Dermatologic Society

ABOUT WDS

The Women's Dermatologic Society, founded in 1973, is dedicated to helping dermatologists fulfill their greatest potential and assisting them in making a contribution to our specialty and society. To achieve this goal, the Society relies on the active participation of its members, who represent a diverse cross-section of professional sub-specialties.

VISION STATEMENT

The Women's Dermatologic Society is committed to issues relevant to women and their families.

MISSION STATEMENT

The mission of the Women's Dermatologic Society is to be the premier organization cultivating personal and professional development of dermatologists dedicated to excellence in patient care, mentorship, volunteerism, and leadership.

President's Welcome Letter

Dear WDS Members, Supporters, and Friends,

Welcome to the 2017 Women's Dermatologic Society Annual Meeting and Luncheon! We are honored by your presence.

As I reflect back on my presidency for the last year, I am amazed by all of the things the WDS has accomplished. We launched our new Logo, Mission Statement, and Website. We held the Strategic Planning Session which gave us the opportunity to reflect on where we are, and how to continue to move forward into the future. The Service Committee held 29 events between Play Safe in the Sun and Coast-to-Coast Programs, and received the ASAE's 2016 "Power of A Gold Award" for Play Safe in the Sun. The Regional Groups continue to develop more networking opportunities, and the Young Physicians Committee successfully launched their Webinar Series.

Thank you to all of our outstanding members who have contributed so much to make WDS the special entity it is. I know that the future of WDS is bright, and look forward to watching it grow.

Whether this is your 1st or 44th WDS Annual Meeting & Luncheon, I know you will feel the amazing energy of our organization as we celebrate our achievements and look forward to a fabulous year ahead. I hope you will take a moment to meet some new members and find out how you can be more engaged in the WDS.

Adelaide A. Hebert, MD

Thank You to Our Annual Meeting & Luncheon Sponsors

Co-Chair's Welcome Letter

Dear WDS Members, Supporters, and Friends,

Welcome to the Women's Dermatologic Society's (WDS) Annual Meeting & Luncheon and welcome to sunny Orlando, Florida.

Today we celebrate the Women's Dermatologic Society and 44 Magical Years. We are excited to have our guest speaker Valerie Monroe, Beauty Director at O, The Oprah Magazine here with us today. She will speak about beauty and what it really means to feel beautiful in her "Radical Enhancement, Not Either/Or, but More" presentation. We thank her for being here today.

We congratulate this year's president Dr. Adelaide A. Hebert for her outstanding leadership this past year and welcome our incoming President, Dr. Mary E. Maloney.

We would also like to thank our generous sponsors and supporters. Additionally, we would like to thank our Annual Meeting Committee for all their hard work.

In closing, we want to express our appreciation to all of you for attending and for continuing to support the WDS's mission!

Warm Regards,

Chere Lucas Anthony, MD

Marta I. Rendon, MD

Keynote Speaker

VALERIE MONROE

Radical Enhancement, Not Either/Or, but More

Valerie Monroe draws on her 15 year experience as beauty director at O, The Oprah Magazine, and confidante of many of the magazine's millions of readers to offer unique insights into their desires and vulnerabilities in relation to our beauty culture. Her focus is on recognizing the ways that competition and self-judgment in the beauty arena are limiting and unhealthy for women, and how the practice of self-compassion can help women understand what it really means to feel beautiful.

About Our Speaker

Valerie Monroe has been, the beauty director at O, The Oprah Magazine since September, 2001. It was her first foray, in over 30 years of magazine journalism, into the field of beauty. She has been an editor at Ms., Redbook, Self and Parenting Magazines, among others, a contributing writer at Parents and Entertainment Weekly, and has written hundreds of articles on a wide range of topics for many national publications from Mirabella to Psychology Today. She is the author of two books: Citykids (Simon & Schuster), about raising kids in cities across the country, and In the Weather of the Heart (Doubleday), a memoir of her marriage, and she is currently working on a third book about the process of letting a child go as he grows. Many of the essays she has written for O, The Oprah Magazine on various subjects — from raising a son to trying Botox — have been collected in anthologies featuring the magazine's notable contributors. Valerie has taught feature-writing at the Columbia University Graduate School of Journalism. She has appeared many times on national television, and she has been a speaker at O, You events — appearing before up to 5,000 women who have enrolled in a day's worth of Oprah-centric activities. She was honored at the Skin Cancer Foundation's Skin Sense Award Gala for her commitment to beauty, skin health and sun protection in 2007; she was a recipient of the American Society for Dermatologic Surgery award for Special Excellence and Commitment to Skin Health Education in 2015; she gave the keynotes at the Generational Dermatology Symposium earlier this year and at the Cosmetic Bootcamp Symposium last July.

Her monthly Ask Val page in the magazine has been followed by millions of faithful readers since its inception in 2003.

2017 Rose Hirschler Award

KATHLEEN J. HECTORNE, MD

Biography

Dr. Hectorne, a lifelong Minnesotan, received her bachelor's degree in Music Education and her medical degree from the University of Minnesota. While at Mayo Clinic completing her Internal Medicine residency, she worked on a diazolidinyl urea project with Dr. Anthony Fransway, who inspired her to also train in Dermatology. Subsequently Dr. Hectorne has held a joint position as consultant/clinical instructor at Mayo Clinic and its nearest Mayo Clinic Health System satellite in Austin, MN. Teaching both the Mayo Clinic Family Medicine residents while in Austin and the Dermatology residents when in Rochester has been a 'constant source of renewal and joy.' As a community dermatologist for over 20 years in Austin she has had the opportunity to develop lasting relationships with her patients and their families, who now include 4 generations. Dr. Hectorne has been active in the AAD's Leadership Development Steering Committee, Leadership Institute, and Leadership Forums. Currently Immediate Past President of the WDS, she has served on the WDS BOD in some capacity since 2009, and has chaired several WDS Forums and Membership Enrichment Leadership Development meetings. An avid dog lover, Dr. Hectorne also enjoys playing flute and piano, swimming, and traveling with friends and family.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

Thank you so much for the incredible honor of being the 2017 Rose Hirschler award recipient.

As I view the list of accomplished recipients for this award, it is clear we are on a continuum of striving to make the path for those who come after us better. WDS has done this formally and informally through community service projects, leadership development, mentoring, networking, and the WDS' International Journal of Women's Dermatology. Through WDS I have had the opportunity to work with strong, enlightened, extraordinary men and women who have advised, encouraged, and befriended me. They have allowed me to develop personally and professionally, enabling me to better serve my patients, community, and The WDS. I encourage each of you here today to continue WDS' legacy of mentorship, leadership, and comradery. Through your efforts we can further advance our field, while shedding light on the needs and concerns of women in Dermatology. I am grateful to be the Rose Hirschler award recipient and am so proud to stand with each of you as a member of the WDS.

The Rose Hirschler Award is named in honor of Dr. Rose Hirschler, one of the first known female dermatologists in the United States. The award is presented annually by the WDS to physicians chosen for their significant contributions to medicine and dermatology and who, by their achievement, have served to enhance the role of women in the dermatologic specialty.

2017 Mentor of the Year

AMIT PANDYA, MD

Biography

Dr. Amit G. Pandya is a Professor in the Department of Dermatology at the University of Texas Southwestern Medical Center in Dallas, Texas, U.S.A. He earned his Doctor of Medicine degree from UT Southwestern Medical School, and completed residencies in Internal Medicine at Presbyterian Hospital of Dallas and in Dermatology at UT Southwestern Medical Center. Dr. Pandya has a special interest in vitiligo, melasma and other pigmentary disorders. His ongoing clinical research is focused on the etiology, epidemiology, measurement, quality of life, diagnosis, and treatment of these cutaneous disorders. He is also interested in mentorship, diversity, and pipeline programs.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

Many years ago, after the birth of my sons, I realized that I had to cut back on my clinical, research, and educational activities in order to balance my job with my important responsibilities as a father. I have been blessed to have had wonderful mentors in dermatology who guided me during this time; however, there was no dermatology organization that addressed this common dilemma...until I found the Women's Dermatologic Society. I was drawn to it because it was the only Society I had ever heard of that had the word "family" in its mission statement. Finally, I had found an organization that acknowledged publicly that we are not defined by our careers, but rather, human beings like everyone else, with lives outside work that should be as robust as our careers. I was glad to speak to leaders of the WDS who gave me holistic advice about my career, including information about leadership, mentorship, clinical excellence, raising children, and how to avoid being an absentee parent and spouse. I didn't succeed all the time, but I was glad to find this support. More importantly, I saw how the WDS gave this information to residents and young physicians, who, like me many years ago, had new jobs or were newly married or new moms and dads. As a mentor to these young individuals, I have urged them to work hard to achieve work-home balance and use the resources of the WDS to help them. Leadership fails when a person tries to do it all alone. Working in a leadership team may require one to share the credit, but it's much more likely to produce work-home balance. The WDS excels in demonstrating this to the dermatology community worldwide.

I appreciate this mentorship award and would like to dedicate it to the many mentors I have had throughout my life. I can only accomplish my mentorship activities today because I stand on the shoulders of giants. Thank you WDS!

Past Recipients:

- 2016 - Alexa Boer Kimball, MD, MPH
- 2015 - Lisa Garner, MD, FAAD
- 2014 - Mary P. Lupo, MD

The first WDS Mentor of the Year award was given to Frances J. Stors, MD, who had previously returned her honorarium to the WDS for the Rose Hirschler Award in 1991, to establish a Mentorship Program. Since 1993, the Mentorship Program has funded more than 400 women and men early in their professional careers, to spend one-on-one time with an established mentor of specific expertise.

2017 WDS Volunteer of the Year Award

ASHLEY WYSONG, MD, MS Biography

Dr. Wysong is an Assistant Professor and Director of Mohs Micrographic Surgery and Procedural Dermatology at the University of Southern California (USC) Department of Dermatology and at Los Angeles County Medical Center. She obtained her Master's degree in Epidemiology in the Department of Health Research and Policy at Stanford University and earned her medical degree at Duke University School of Medicine where she was valedictorian of her medical school class. Dr. Wysong completed her residency in Dermatology at Stanford University where she also served as Chief Resident. Her fellowship in Procedural Dermatology and Mohs Micrographic Surgery was completed at Scripps Clinic under the direction of Dr. Hugh Greenway in Mohs surgery, Dr. Victor Ross in laser and cosmetic dermatology, and Dr. Leland Housman in veins. Dr. Wysong specializes in Mohs surgery and reconstruction for melanoma and non-melanoma skin cancer. She has a special interest in locally advanced and metastatic basal cell and squamous cell carcinoma, as well as, treatment of rare skin tumors. She is Director of the USC Multidisciplinary Cutaneous Tumor Board at USC Norris Comprehensive Cancer Center. She has significant experience treating skin cancer in high-risk populations such as patients with organ transplants, leukemia/lymphoma, HIV, and other forms of chronic immunosuppression. As a former 6x NCAA All-American and professional track and field athlete, Dr. Wysong has a special interest in promoting sun safety and skin cancer prevention among adolescents, young adults, and outdoor athletes.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

I am so honored to win the WDS Volunteer of the Year Award. I have really enjoyed being an active member of WDS since I was a resident physician, and have loved being involved with the Service and Young Physicians Committees. WDS is such a wonderful organization and makes it so easy to get involved! I would really encourage all the resident, young physician, and senior members of WDS to host a service event in their local areas through Play Safe in the Sun, Coast-2-Coast, TOPS, or Dove Movement for Self Esteem. The events are so fun to organize and really make a difference in our home communities!

Past Recipients:

- 2016 - Shadi Kourash, MD
- 2015 - Pearl E. Grimes, MD; Mona Gohara, MD; Rachel Pritzker, MD
- 2014 - Becki Tung, MD & Latanya Benjamin, MD

The Volunteer of the Year award has been established to recognize a WDS member who has made an outstanding contribution through community service. The rollout of this award at the 2014 Annual Luncheon coincided with the tenth anniversary of WDS community outreach programs and this now annual award will continue to honor all those who support WDS and our service outreaches.

2017 Walter B. Shelley, MD Leadership Award

WILLIAM D. JAMES, MD

Biography

I attended the United States Military Academy at West Point and Indiana University School of Medicine. My residency was at Letterman Army Medical Center in San Francisco under the directorship of a prior Shelley awardee, Dr. Richard Odom. After a short stint as the dermatologist to the cadets at West Point and volunteer faculty member at NYU, my family moved to Washington DC where I soon became the Chair and Residency Program Director at Walter Reed. After 8 fulfilling years at this position, I retired from the Army and became the Residency Director at the University of Pennsylvania, a position I still hold.

A few highlights of my career include being named Mentor of the Year by the WDS, and an Inspirational Physician by the Women's Section of the AMA. Other honors include receiving the Medical Education Award of the ASA, the Lifetime Achievement Award by the MDS, the Gold Medal from the AAD, and the Lifetime Career Educator Award by the DF. I served as President of the AAD, have been a co-author of the past 5 editions of Andrews' Diseases of the Skin, and am the Founding Editor-in-Chief of Medscape Dermatology. I have delivered over 20 named lectureships, am the past Albert M. Kligman Professor, and am the current Paul R. Gross Professor.

I live in Bryn Mawr, Pennsylvania with my wife of 44 years, Ann, and my daughter, Becca. My son Dan, daughter-in-law Wynn, and 2 grandsons Declan and Driscoll live in Half Moon Bay, California.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

I wish to thank the members of the WDS Awards Committee for recommending me for this recognition, and the Board of Directors and the Officers for bestowing it on me. Having known the prior 3 awardees, I am humbled to be in their company.

The WDS serves as a welcoming home filled with friendship and respect for each of its members. It is fitting that the flagship mentoring program in terms of date of development, size, and enthusiasm resides within the WDS. The Networking Receptions are also of special mention, bringing together like-minded successful participants at many venues around the world. The policy of finding a job for everyone who wants to participate reflects the openness and desire to nurture service by the WDS. In sum, the WDS addresses the special needs of women in medicine via a wide variety of programs specifically designed to support their advancement and success.

As a male member of the WDS, I have learned many lessons through the collaboration and pursuit of common goals with the women of the WDS. It is through listening to a diversity of viewpoints while keeping an open mind toward providing new, innovative programs of support and mentorship that we make progress. Thank you to our past and current leaders of the WDS for showing the way; I am certain our organization, for all its successes, still has the best ahead.

Past Recipients:

2015 - Richard Odom, MD

2014 - Stephen I. Katz, MD, PhD

2012 - E. Dorinda Shelley, MD (in honor of her late husband, Walter B. Shelley, MD)

The Walter B. Shelley, MD Leadership Award is presented periodically to a man who has made a significant contribution toward supporting women in dermatology.

Dr. Gilbert graduated Phi Beta Kappa and Magna Cum Laude from Barnard College in New York. She then pursued a combined MD-PhD degree from SUNY Downstate where she graduated Alpha Omega Alpha. She performed her internship in internal medicine at NYU medical center. She completed her dermatology residency as a chief resident at SUNY Downstate.

Dr. Gilbert has been featured in The New York Times, Vogue, Elle, Shape, Allure, O Magazine, Real Simple, Nylon, Refinery29, Charlotte's Book, Health, The Good Life, Prevention and she has appeared on local and national television including The Dr. Oz Show, NBC and ABC News.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

Thank you to Adelaide for this amazing honor.

My journey within the WDS has been one of the most rewarding aspects of my professional life. In 2010 I was recruited to the WDS right out of residency to serve on the Fundraising Committee by two of my mentors (Drs. Diane Berson and Heidi Waldorf). I've enjoyed taking on a leadership role in that committee, serving as Chair since 2014. I have also had the honor of serving on the Board of Directors since 2014. I am often asked what makes the WDS different from the other organizations in dermatology. My answer to this question reflects how I became involved and why I remain involved: strong mentorship, long-lasting friendships (both with our co-members as well as with our industry partners) and the opportunity to grow within our field. This very event highlights these relationships. I look forward to continuing to serve you, WDS!

NEIL S. SADICK, MD, FACP

Biography

Founder & President

Neil Sadick, MD, FAAD, FAACS, FACP, FACPPh, is one of the most influential and renowned dermatologists and researchers in the world. His multiple discoveries have strongly influenced and transformed the future of dermatology. He is the founder of the world renowned Sadick Research Group. He is also the author of the bestselling consumer book, The New Natural.

Dr. Sadick holds four board certifications: Dermatology, Internal Medicine, Cosmetic Surgery, and Hair Restoration. He is also a Fellow of the American College of Phlebology and a Diplomat of the American Board of Phlebology.

Dr. Sadick's prestigious list of titles range from Clinical Professor of Dermatology at Weill Cornell Medical College to Vice President of the International Society for Dermatologic Surgeons, Past President of the American Academy of Cosmetic Surgery, Past President of the Cosmetic Surgery Foundation, and Past President of the American College of Phlebology. He is the Secretary/Treasurer of the Noah Worcester Dermatological Society, and Treasurer of the Women's Dermatologic Society.

He is a board member of Hair Research Foundation of the International Society of Hair Restoration Surgery and serves on the Scientific Advisory Council of the Hair Foundation and Board of Directors for the American Academy of Dermatology, Executive Board of the Women's Dermatologic Society, and has served on the Board of the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery.

He has been listed on New York Magazines "Best Doctors" list for several years running, and has been featured in the media and appeared on the Dr. Oz Show, Access Hollywood, The Real Housewives of New York, and the Today Show.

He serves as Senior Editor of Journal of Drugs in Dermatology, is an Associate Editor of Journal of Cosmetic Dermatology, and serves on the Editorial board for the Journal of Phlebology, Journal of the American Academy of Dermatology, and Dermatologic Surgery

Dr. Sadick has authored over 280 journal publications and has written over 20 books on hair disorders, facial rejuvenation, lasers, sclerotherapy and cosmetic surgery, as well as, 60 book chapters on cosmeceuticals, hair transplantation, lasers and sclerotherapy. He has presented more than 500 major academic presentations throughout the world.

Dr. Sadick has traveled globally training dermatologists, plastic surgeons, and aesthetic physicians on new and advanced injectables and laser techniques. He is also fluent in Spanish and German.

Personal Note/Statement of Thanks

It is a great honor to receive the President's Award. Seeing the WDS advance as a leading force in dermatology has been one of the most fruitful aspects of my career.

Its service, leadership development, and mentorship programs that are now expanding around the world define its strategic, critical place in our specialty.

I would like to thank Dr. Hebert and all our membership for this prestigious award.

I am truly touched and honored.

WDS Charitable Donation

WDS strives to make an impact on the lives of others. Therefore, the Annual Meeting Luncheon Committee has elected to make a donation on behalf of all WDS members, supporters, guests, and friends attending the luncheon to One Heart for Women and Children.

ABOUT ONE HEART FOR WOMEN AND CHILDREN

One Heart for Women and Children's mission is to provide the necessary resources for families as they transition through and overcome varying hardships of daily living in the Central Florida region and abroad. How we do that . . . We have established partnerships with many Central Florida resources to educate, empower, and mentor men, women and children. We provide the following services from our Home base in Orlando, Florida: Clothes, Food, School Supplies, Personal Hygiene Items, and Household Items. We offer a full spectrum of education and prevention services to families including: Life skills and Parenting Classes, Youth education and Outreach, and Drug and Alcohol Prevention. Abroad, One Heart for Women and Children delivers many of these services to Haiti, Costa Rica, and Africa.

We coordinate special projects that link local businesses to help others from construction and home renovations, to planting sustainable gardens. We connect a community that cares, creates hope, and fosters opportunities to those in need.

WDS ACADEMIC RESEARCH AWARD RECIPIENTS

The WDS Academic Research Award provides funding for residents and early career dermatologists performing basic science or clinical research relevant to the field of dermatology. Awards in the amount of up to $10,000 each are given on a competitive basis. These awards are intended to help the recipient further in his or her academic career, and may serve as a basis for obtaining further funding.

WDS/AAD 2017 INTERNATIONAL TRAVEL AWARD RECIPIENTS

The purpose of the WDS International Travel Awards is to provide support for women dermatologists from other countries to attend the WDS Annual Meeting Luncheon as well as the American Academy of Dermatology's Annual Meeting.

The WDS wishes to gratefully acknowledge the American Academy of Dermatology's International Affairs Committee for providing supplemental support of our 2017 International Travel Award program. By combining our own travel grant with complimentary registration to the AAD Annual Meeting and the International Scholarship Dinner, we are able to provide five young physicians from around the world with professional development and networking experiences they might not otherwise have been able to enjoy.

Smita Ghate, MD - India
Edyta Lelonek, MD - Poland
Fiona Namutebi, MD - Uganda
Rania Abdel Hay, MD - Egypt
Ana Sofia Ayala-Cortes, MD - Mexico

This program is supported by Mary Kay Inc. and the American Academy of Dermatology.

WDS & AVON COSMETIC MENTORSHIP AWARD RECIPIENTS

In 2016, WDS partnered with AVON's Skin Care Institute to bring members an exciting mentorship opportunity! The first award is granted to a WDS member - resident or young physician (five years or less out of residency), also known as the "mentee". The second award goes to a more seasoned WDS member who is further along in their career — the "mentor". This award was established to help promote the concept of mentorship, while gaining exposure and an understanding of the cosmetic dermatology business. The awardees travel to the Avon corporate headquarters and R&D facilities in New York.

Mentee: Candrice Heath, MD
Mentor: Susan Taylor, MD

This program is supported by AVON Skincare Institute

WDS Legacy Fund Donors

The WDS Board of Directors and Legacy Council wishes to thank the following donors who have made contributions to the Women's Dermatologic Society from 2004 to December 2016, as shown with their cumulative WDS rose designation. We are grateful for your support and generosity, which enables us to build a solid future for the WDS.

ABOUT THE JOURNAL

The IJWD publishes articles pertaining to dermatologic medical, surgical and cosmetic issues faced by female patients and their children. We are interested in original research articles, review articles, unusual case reports, new treatments, clinical trials, education, mentorship and viewpoint articles. Very important articles will have accompanying editorials. Topics which our subsection editors look forward to welcoming include acneiform disorders, inflammatory skin conditions, infections, including sexually transmitted diseases, autoimmune conditions, blistering diseases, vitiligo, skin of colour, hair and nail disorders, skin cancers, pregnancy and childbirth, pediatric dermatology, vulvar/genital disorders, psychodermatology, surgical issues, laser/peel/cosmetic procedures, and dermatopathology. Articles dealing with ethical issues in dermatology and medical legal scenarios are also welcome. We aim for rapid peer review from the academic leadership of the WDS as well as experts throughout the world. We will have open access of the accepted peer-reviewed articles even before the final proofs are compiled, allowing the work to be available as soon as possible. We cater to an audience of dermatologists, scientists, educational experts, family practitioners, pediatricians, gynecologists and obstetricians, plastic surgeons, rheumatologists, internists, family physicians and pharmacologists.

ABOUT THE PUBLISHER

Elsevier is a world-leading provider of information solutions that enhance the performance of science, health, and technology professionals, empowering them to make better decisions, deliver better care, and sometimes make groundbreaking discoveries that advance the boundaries of knowledge and human progress. Elsevier provides web-based, digital solutions — among them ScienceDirect, Scopus, Elsevier Research Intelligence and ClinicalKey — and publishes over 2,000 journals, including Journal of the American Academy of Dermatology, Journal of Investigative Dermatology, and more than 33,000 book titles, including a number of iconic reference works. Elsevier is part of RELX Group plc, a world leading provider of information solutions for professional customers across industries.

GUIDELINES FOR AUTHORS

The International Journal of Women's Dermatology is a refereed journal designed to meet the continuing education needs of Women's Dermatology Society members and the entire dermatologic community. The Journal bases its policies on the guidelines set forth by the International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (www.icmje.org).

Before you begin, please visit www.ijwdonline.org/content/authorinfo and carefully read the information on author's rights, guidelines, and policies regarding article submission. You will also find information on what to do after your article is accepted.

SUBMIT A MANUSCRIPT

To submit a manuscript, visit www.ijwdonline.org and click the "For Authors" tab. They should be submitted under one of the following sections:

1. Diseases as they apply to female patients
2. Female anatomical and physiological issues relevant to skin
3. Pediatric dermatology
4. Cosmetic Dermatology
5. Procedural Dermatology
6. Therapeutics relevant to women
7. Workforce issues relevant to women in dermatology
8. Ethics
9. Medical-Legal
10. Literary Piece: What's on my mind!

NOW ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS FOR THE WDS PROCTER & GAMBLE SCIENCE BEHIND SYMPOSIUM PROGRAM!

The Women's Dermatologic Society is excited to announce a new program available through a partnership with P&G which will provide award recipients with the opportunity to attend the P&G Science Behind Symposium, April 27th - 29th, 2017.

Over the past 14 years, Procter & Gamble has hosted more than 200 prominent dermatologists in Cincinnati, OH for a two-day summit called The P&G Science Behind Symposium (a.k.a. Dermatology Technology Symposium). This gathering of top health professionals with leading industry scientists, researchers and marketers serves to inspire collaboration, innovation, and scientific exchange. The meeting's ultimate goal is to spur discussion about products with meaningful, measurable and noticeable benefits to consumers and patients. The primary objectives of this program are to:

- Learn more about cutting edge techniques and technologies being used industry-wide to advance skincare products and research
- Foster collaboration and learning with leaders in the dermatology community
- Gain insights into the science behind top skincare products to help guide patient recommendations
- Network with colleagues and renowned scientists and discuss how new skincare technologies can better serve their patients

Physicians in attendance are guided through the science behind P&G products as well as the latest in skin research coming out of state of the art labs— from anti-aging to sensitivity and everything in between.

Mentorship Grant

The Women's Dermatologic Society is excited to announce that a second cycle of our signature Mentorship Award Program will be accepting applications soon! The WDS Mentorship Award Program develops mentoring relationships that might not otherwise be possible due to distance or funding availability.

Program Criteria:

- All applicants must be dermatology residents in training or junior faculty out of training five years or less at North American institutions.
- All applicants must be current or pending members of WDS.
- Either the Mentor or Mentee must be a woman.
- Each Mentor may support a maximum of two Mentee applicants per year.
- If an applicant accepts funding from another organization for the same proposal or is unable to complete his/her mentorship, the awarded funds will be returned to WDS.
- The Mentorship award is not intended to cover indirect or overhead costs.

Upon completion of mentorship, the mentee is required to submit a final summary report and headshot that will be published in the annual report.

Application Checklist:

- Online Application
- Applicant CV
- Statement of Purpose
- Proposed Budget ($2,000 maximum award given)
- Letter of support from Chairman and/or Program Director
- Letter of Support from Mentor

Application Timeline:

Applications open: Monday, March 6, 2017

Application Deadline: Friday, July 7, 2017

Winners announced Mid-August and recognized at the 2018 Annual Meeting & Luncheon.

The WDS Mentorship Award Program is sponsored by Valeant Pharmaceuticals North America.

TESTIMONIALS

“WDS has been an outstanding way to meet fellow dermatologists, both women and men, from around the country. Through WDS committee work and community service, I have developed lifelong friendships and leadership skills in a supportive environment.”

~ Kathleen J. Hectome, MD, FAAD

“The WDS has been truly instrumental in my career development and training as a resident. From networking events and involvement with the Play Safe in the Sun and TOPS Programs to a life-altering mentorship experience, I am amazed by all that the WDS has to offer! The friendships and mentoring relationships will be invaluable for many years to come.”

~ Ashley Wysong, MD, MS
